Plans for town to have its own regeneration board

AXMINSTER is likely to get its own East Devon District Council (EDDC) Regeneration Board, following the examples of Seaton and Exmouth.

District councillor and former Axminster mayor Andrew Moulding says the matter has been discussed with high-ranking EDDC officers for some time.

An initial regeneration budget of £10,000 has already been allocated by EDDC and the next step is usually the formation of a regeneration board, he explained.

anders@viewnews.co.uk

Councillor Moulding, who has worked with fellow councillor Graham Godbeer, said: "My proposal will be that a regeneration board should be formed for Axminster to follow the examples of Seaton and Exmouth.

"I have been discussing it with EDDC Deputy Chief Executive Richard Cohen, and he is well aware that work needs to be done in Axminster."

The work by the regeneration board would tie-in with the Neighbourhood Plan being developed for Axminster.

Councillor Moulding explained: "The Neighbourhood Plan will put forward ideas for Axminster, and the regeneration board could put flesh on the bone."

A regeneration board would not only involve councillors, but chamber of commerce representatives and a cross-section of other parties with a stake in regeneration. Pressing issues in Axminster include the long-term future of the Webster's site as well as that of the empty George Hotel building.

The regeneration board for Seaton was set up more than five years ago and is credited with having played a big part in the town's recent upswing, including the state-of-the-art Jurassic Centre which opened during Easter.

Work is also set to start on the Seaton Heights luxury hotel/holiday complex, Premier Inn has applied for permission to build a 75-bed hotel, the tramway is set to build a new terminus, and a new planning application has been submitted for a complex of 90 two-bedroom apartments on Seaton Quay.

TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

AXMINSTER

Putting 'flesh on the regeneration bone'

AXMINSTER is likely to get its own East Devon District Council (EDDC) Regeneration Board, following the examples of Seaton and Exmouth.

District councillor and former Axminster mayor Andrew Moulding says the matter has been discussed with high-ranking EDDC officers for some time.

An initial regeneration budget of £10,000 has already been allocated by EDDC and the next step is usually the formation of a regeneration board, he explained.

Councillor Moulding, who has worked with fellow councillor Graham Godbeer, said: "My proposal will be that a regeneration board should be formed for Axminster to follow the examples of Seaton and Exmouth."

"I have been discussing it with EDDC Deputy Chief Executive Richard Cohen, and he is well aware that work needs to be done in Axminster."

The work by the regeneration board would tie in with the Neighbourhood Plan being developed for Axminster.

Councillor Moulding explained: "The Neighbourhood Plan will put forward ideas for Axminster, and the regeneration board could put flesh on the bone."

A regeneration board would not only involve councillors, but chamber of commerce representatives and a cross-section of other parties with a stake in regeneration.

Pressing issues in Axminster include the long-term future of the Webster's site as well as that of the empty George Hotel building.

The regeneration board for Seaton was set up more than five years ago and is credited with having played a big part in the town's recent upswing, including the state-of-the-art Jurassic Centre which opened during Easter.

From the editor's chair Happy days for Seaton

THESE are exciting times for Seaton. After years as the "Cinderella" of East Devon, there is a real positive vibe in the town that Seaton is finally on the up.

"The Cinderella" town was never really a fair reflection of life in the town, but there are many, with some justification I might add, who believe that Seaton has suffered badly in recent years from a lack of investment.

But with the news that Premier Inns are planning to build a 75-bedroom hotel off Harbour Road and the opening of the £4 million Jurassic Centre in the Underfleet, Seaton could well be on the verge of a huge boost to the economy of the town.

The sheer inventiveness of the Jurassic centre impressed all those who were first through the doors when the facility opened to the public on Saturday. More than 1,000 people visited the centre on Saturday and Sunday, described by the management as "an excellent response".

A tourist attraction of this standard is bound to attract many thousands of new visitors to the "Gateway to the Jurassic Coast" and will certainly make the town a must visit for the hordes of people who flock to this part of world, giving the Seaton the edge over other local communities which cash in greatly on those fascinated by the earth sciences.

And the town centre is bound to benefit by the influx of such large numbers.

Sadly, no such investment for Axminster but there is still reason for celebration in the opening of the Axminster Heritage Centre in Thomas Whitty House, home of Axminster's first carpet factory.

The actual manufacture of carpets may not be so crucial to the economy of Axminster any more, but the centre will rightly celebrate the town's carpetmaking heritage, alongside a new home for the town museum.

This has been a voluntary effort of huge proportions and I am in awe of those who have worked so hard in the most trying of economic conditions to deliver this worthy initiative.

HONITON

Fight is on to save the post office

THE future of Honiton post office continues to hang in the balance after it was announced that it was one of 39 branches that could face franchising.

The Post Office announced plans in January that they were looking at the potential of closing the Crown branch on Honiton High Street, and have now said they are in discussion with potential franchise partners for the business.

Paul Wotton, Western Counties branch secretary for the Communications Workers Union, who represent Post Office workers, called the announcement 'disappointing' and that it will have 'an adverse effect on the high street'.

In a statement sent to Pulman's View from Honiton, a spokesperson for the Post Office wrote: "Most of our network of 11,500 branches is already run on an agency or franchise basis and has been for decades."

"We advertised for a potential franchise partner and we have had some interest registered which we are now exploring."

Colin Wright, president of Honiton Chamber of Commerce, said: "The Honiton branch has always appeared to be exceptionally busy and they have no competition in the immediate area."

"The town certainly needs a local post office and the businesses in and around the town centre will experience some difficulty in finding a suitable alternative."

"I urge local people to support the campaign to keep this post office open in any way that they can."

SOUTH SOMERSET

Refugee families to be welcomed to area

SOUTH Somerset is scheduled to welcome refugee families in the coming weeks as part of a national programme to support those fleeing war-torn Syria.

Somerset's five district councils, the county council and Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) are supporting the Syrian Vulnerable Persons Resettlement Scheme (SVPRS). The UK government has pledged to settle 20,000 Syrian refugees over a five year period, including 1,000 in the first group, and has sought volunteer councils to offer resettlement.

The six families – 12 adults and 10 children – are due to arrive at the end of March or early next month. They are being resettled in the Taunton Deane, Mendip and South Somerset districts – two families in each of these districts.

The scheme is fully-funded by the government and families will be housed in the private rented sector, having no impact on housing waiting lists operated by district councils. Families will only be resettled where the services, such as school places, health and social care, have the capacity to cater for them.

SIDMOUTH

Mary is the new Deputy Lieutenant

SIDMOUTH equestrian legend Mary King MBE has become the latest Deputy Lieutenant of Devon, joining a list which includes 'War Horse' author Michael Morpurgo.

Mrs King, who has won multiple titles over her career, which spans three decades, will be Lord Lieutenant David Fursdon's first deputy appointment since taking on the roll in April 2015.

The Devon Lieutenancy is the monarch's link with the county, and David Fursdon's role as the Queen's representative is to uphold the dignity of the crown and to celebrate the achievements of the people of Devon and their service to others.

Mrs King: "I feel very honoured to accept this position. And I'm very happy to represent the county of Devon which is a real home for me. I travel around a lot but Devon is always home for me."

Mrs King was appointed Member of the Order of the British Empire in 2013's New Year Honours List for services to equestrianism.

SEATON

Mayor calls on town to back new hotel

SEATON mayor Tony Woodman is keen plans for Premier Inn to open a hotel in the town are not delayed – and persuaded fellow councillors to fully back the proposal last week.

News that the hotel chain wishes to build a 75-bedroom facility in Harbour Road has, overall, been met with approval.

The actual planning application was on the agenda when the town council's planning committee met on Monday, March 21st.

Several members of the local bed and breakfast association attended and did not object to the application as such, saying they were confident their own establishments, which offer a different experience to a hotel, would continue to flourish.

They were concerned about the number of bedrooms, though, saying 75 was excessive and should be brought down to somewhere in the 60s, as is the case with Premier Inns in Exmouth and Honiton.

Members of the public and some councillors also noted the change of plan from a pitched roof to a flat one.

Planning committee chairman councillor Marcus Hartnell pointed out that the original outline plan had been for 100 beds, so felt a further reduction would not be justified.

NHS NEW Devon CCG story

FOLLOWING last week's story on the transfer of local community hospitals from Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust (NDHT) to the Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust (RD&EFT), the NHS Northern, Eastern and Western Devon Clinical Commissioning Group (NHS NEW Devon CCG) has asked us to add to their original statement the following points:

- In August 2015, the CCG published a statement following the Monitor investigation saying that they would aim to award the contract in November 2015;

- The CCG confirmed in December 2015 that they would proceed towards contract award, with the planned contract start expected to happen in April 2016;

- Instead, by mutual agreement between NDHT, RD&EFT and the NHS NEW Devon CCG, and the continuing due diligence and contract negotiation, it was changed to June 2016 to enable a short period of extra time for the transition;

- At no time was it stated that the contract would transfer in November.

Webster's: site owners want car park open

by Anders Larsson

HALLMARK Estates has reiterated its intention to open a car park on the Webster's site in Axminster as soon as possible.

The company spoke out in the wake of Axminster Town Council recommending refusal for last minute changes.

As reported last week, town councillor Graham Godbeer also suspected that the proposed changes were nothing more than a delaying tactic by Hallmark Estates.

Explaining why the company wants to make changes, Hallmark Estates boss Neal Hiscocks said: "The revised landscaping plan is without fear of valid contradiction considerably safer for pedestrians and vehicles due to the additional space given over to both."

"When the frontage was cleared it became obvious that without the two soft landscaping beds, we really could improve things substantially for both categories of users."

The town council was fully behind Hallmark Estates when it fought a prolonged planning battle and eventually got permission to turn the site into a temporary car park two years ago.

The site has been cleared and did host the carnival fun fair last autumn, but it has not yet been used for car parking.

Mr Hiscocks added: "For the avoidance of any doubt, we want to open the new temporary car-park at the absolutely earliest possible opportunity."

"If the opening ceremony has to be postponed it'll be due to the well-meaning input of those in a position to influence the planning process rather than Hallmark."

"However, that's the price of democracy which is considerably better than the alternative."

"The car park layout, along with lighting and other technical issues, are the subject of a parallel application."

"This is being dealt with by our technical advisors and officers at East Devon District Council as we write."

"Had we any intention whatsoever of delaying the opening of the new car-park, we would simply have submitted two consecutive applications as opposed to the simultaneous ones that we have done."

"As for the look of the Revised Landscaping Plan, this is of course a matter of taste and opinions will naturally vary."

One town council objection involved the type of seating for one of the areas.

Mr Hiscocks said: "We had space on-site which could have increased income generation but instead we wanted to give something back to the people and businesses of Axminster for all the support over recent years."

"The seating area is not a working component of the car-park, it's just somewhere where people can meet and 'chew the cud' before heading-off around the town."

"We believe that the seating area will sit there just perfectly for the temporary length of time it's going to be there at all."

East Devon District Council will make a decision in due course.

Green turns purple with crocuses

■ IN BLOOM: Axminster Rotary's incoming Foundation Officer Don Waterhouse at Minster Green

THE combined efforts of Axminster Horticultural Society, locals and Axminster Rotary in November last year have come to fruition.

Some 5,000 crocuses were planted on Minster Green and now the fruits of their labour can be seen by all.

Rotarian Malcolm Reynolds said: "The purple crocus is synonymous with the efforts of Rotary International to eradicate polio globally."

"The flower bears the same purple colour that is used to paint on the fingers of children who have been immunised against polio."

"Since making the pledge in 1985 to stamp out polio, Rotary International in partnership with health agencies has brought the number of cases of polio down by 99 per cent."

"The planting of crocuses is one way we remind ourselves and demonstrate the final push to eliminate the disease."

He also said that anyone interested in finding out more about Axminster Rotary are welcome to call him on 07718 942691.

Alternatively, you can find out more online at www.rotaryclubofaxminster.co.uk

No injuries in road traffic accidents

KILMINGTON: There were no injuries when two cars were involved in a collision on the A35 at Kilmington in the morning of Monday, March 21st.

Emergency services were called just after 7.30am, and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "One fire appliance from Axminster was mobilised."

"All persons were free and clear of the incident. Crews made the vehicles safe from fire and left duty of care with the police."

An ambulance spokesperson said its services had not been required.

WEYCROFT: What was described as a "non-injury accident" took place on the A358 at Weycroft, near, Axminster, just before 5pm on Monday March 21st.

One vehicle was involved.

A spokesperson for the ambulance service said an ambulance attended but nobody needed hospital treatment.

Hospiscare call for volunteers

HOSPISCARE is appealing for more volunteers to support bereaved people in East Devon.

Their trained volunteers offer confidential bereavement support to local people whose loved ones received care from the Hospiscare team. Volunteers phone bereaved people and make visits if requested.

Jill Lee has been a Hospiscare bereavement support volunteer for nearly 15 years and would encourage others to join her.

She said: "It's a privilege to help people and it's nice to see someone coming out the other side of bereavement and you feel you've achieved something."

"There's no quick fix and everyone is different how they react to bereavement. We do not have all the answers but you do see people progress."

Jill attended training sessions and had a mentor when she started volunteering. Now she attends monthly meetings of Hospiscare's bereavement volunteer support team.

"We support each other at these meetings and make suggestions if volunteers are struggling with a particular issue. We bounce ideas off each other. It's a lovely friendly group, with a varied age range and with people from different backgrounds."

Vicky Lachenicht, Hospiscare volunteering manager, said: "Bereavement can be a tough time for people, but having someone to talk to can often make all the difference."

"We'd love to have more volunteers in East Devon. We offer a comprehensive three day training course and ongoing supervision, working alongside a team of other like-minded and experienced volunteers."

To find out how more about this role, contact the volunteering office on 01392 688068 or email volunteering@hospiscare.co.uk.

The next training course will run on June 10th, 17th and 24th.

Opportunity for am-dram group to team up with bus tour company

DEREK Gawn, owner of the Colyton-based Mendip Mule Motorbus, who operate heritage open top bus tours in the area, has started a search for an amateur dramatics group to get onboard with him this summer.

Derek said: "I am looking for a go ahead group to join us in helping to stage our themed evening tours this July and August, on a profit sharing basis towards their funds."

It is planned the new evening tour venture, which complements the established daytime bus tour schedule, will run from Seaton, Sidmouth, Sidford, Beer, Colyton, Colyford, Axmouth, Rousdon and Lyme Regis, on two or three evenings per week.

Derek also said that he was open to ideas on what could be staged but possibly had local legends and history, including ghosts and ghoulies, in mind.

He added: "Perhaps we could even repeat the latter on the run up to Halloween!"

Heritage Centre opens

AXMINSTER Heritage Centre has welcomed its first visitors.

After the formal opening ceremony on Thursday, March 24th, the doors opened to the public on Good Friday.

Devon County Council chairman Christine Channon was invited to formally open the centre and she cut the ribbon shortly after 6pm to the obvious delight of those present.

The centre is located in Thomas Whitty House, the original site of carpet manufacturing in the town.

Apart from telling the story of carpet making in the town, it also incorporates the town's museum, which was previously located in the Old Court House.

Michael Teale, a descendant of Thomas Whitty, was among invited guests for the opening ceremony.

The chairman of the trustees of Axminster Heritage, Dr John Church hopes the centre will help to inform local residents of their heritage and help to attract more visitors to the town.

Open times are Tuesday to Friday 10am-4pm and Saturday 10am-1pm.

Admission is free and the centre will remain open until October.

Further details are online at www.axminsterheritage.org.uk

Praise for town council staff

COUNCILLOR Joy Raymond has publicly praised all staff members of Axminster town Council.

She did so during Axminster Annual Parish Meeting on Monday, March 21st, saying: "Many of us can be very quick to criticise but slow to praise.

"This meeting is an excellent opportunity to thank all the council staff, from John Hoden who looks after the cemetery, to Geoff Enticott for looking after the Guildhall with his assistant Mike Crook.

"It is also an opportunity to welcome our two new members of staff, Steve Moody the Guildhall Manager, and Zishan Adamson-Drage, our new Deputy Town Clerk.

"But most of all to thank our Clerk Hilary Kirkcaldie for all the endless hours she puts in, often unrecognised, unpaid and most of all, unrecognised.

"Speaking as a former professional PA who spent years in the heart of Westminster, I think I'd find it difficult to keep up with the enormous volume of work that passes through the clerk's office.

"This year the clerk has been put under extra pressure with inducting our two new members of staff and there has been an unprecedented amount of requests for information from some councillors - and all of that along with constant interruptions from the phone and people just walking into her office and expecting her to drop whatever task is in hand.

"I think recognition needs to be given for the huge amount of knowledge the clerk has, based on years, many years, of experience."

Councillor Raymond then proposed a big thank you for all of the council staff, which was promptly followed by a supportive round of clapping from all present.

She would also like to point out to everyone that details of forthcoming council meetings are available on the live

Strong finish for school swimmers

■ SILVER: The school sent a competitive team

ST MARY'S Catholic Primary School in Axminster finished runners-up in the Axe Valley Learning Community Swimming Gala at Flamingo pool.

A strong team of years 3 and 4 pupils competed against other local primary schools.

A school spokesperson said: "All the children had a fantastic time."

"A big thank you to Faith Williams and the pupils of Axe Valley Community College who gave up their time to help and support the event."

Farming breakfast raises almost £2,000 for Parkinson's charity

KEEN farmers and hungry guests raised almost £2,000 in Axminster for Parkinson's UK.

Members of Axminster Young Farmers' Club turned The Guildhall into one huge canteen when holding its Big Breakfast on Sunday March 20th.

Club secretary Jack Chapple summed up by saying: "We made 270 breakfasts and made more than £1,900."

"It was a great success and the club would like to thank everyone that came and supported on the day."

"We would also like to thank everyone who donated food and draw prizes.

"It is great to raise money for such worthy causes and we look forward to doing it again next year."

Girl hurt in collision

POLICE are investigating after a 14-year-old female pedestrian was in collision with a car in Chard Street, Axminster.

The girl suffered what police describe as "a minor leg injury" in the accident outside Axe Valley Community College.

The accident happened at about 4.15pm on Thursday, March 10th, and a police spokesperson said: "It is currently being investigated by the collision unit."

Police have not issued a witness appeal, but the girl's father has contacted Pulman's View and asked anyone who witnessed the incident to call police on 101 and quote incident number 551 of March 10th.

Teachers say goodbye

TWO teachers at Axminster Primary Academy said goodbye to colleagues and pupils on the last day before Easter.

Penny Corbett is retiring whilst John Bullen is moving on to a village primary in Wiltshire.

The former arrived as a 21-year-old in 1975. She has had spells away from the school but told Pulman's View: "I kept coming back."

She lives on a farm near Axminster, and said: "I am going back to farming, my son has a vineyard, so they will all put me to work."

Mr Bullen arrived at the school in 1988, as a pupil.

He left in 1993 but returned 12 years later in 2005 as a teacher.

Commenting on Penny's returns and his own as a teacher, he said: "We just can't get away from the place, and we'll be back."

It's finally here! Seaton Jurassic opens its doors

THE £4million Seaton Jurassic Visitor Centre was formally opened last Thursday in a blaze of publicity.

Invited guests and the media packed into the centre and were treated to guided tours before a formal opening ceremony was held.

Centre manager Mike Ruiter said: "We are very excited. Our staff and local volunteers can't wait to greet the first visitors when we open our doors on Saturday [Easter Saturday]."

"They can certainly expect something very different to what already exists along the Jurassic Coast."

The event was billed as a formal opening, but visitors had been allowed in prior to last Thursday.

During the previous weeks, centre management had invited groups of people for trial sessions to ensure everything would run smoothly once the doors were opened 'for real'.

Mr Ruiter explained: "We have had people tell us they were amazed by our interactive exhibits, wowed by the detail of them and what we have managed to fit into the space available."

Seaton Jurassic promises to take people on an adventure going back 250 million years.

It charts the struggle of local life to adapt and survive in changing and, often, hostile environments.

Visitors are also promised time-travel and the prospect of coming face-to-face with the creatures and characters who have been part of the Jurassic Coast's story.

by Anders Larsson
anders@viewnews.co.uk

It is hoped that the facility will attract 60,000 visitors a year, and that the foot-fall will have a positive effect on the town and its businesses as a whole.

In terms of employment, the centre has a staff roster of 20 (a mix of full and part-time) plus a bank of 80 volunteers.

East Devon District Council leader Paul Diviani said the centre marks another step in the ongoing regeneration of the town.

He added: "Seaton Jurassic is a top attraction which will bring in thousands of visitors and, in turn, will boost the economy of Seaton, and East Devon too."

"We are very proud to be the main funder of such a unique project and believe it will be a catalyst for the further generation of the town itself."

Devon Wildlife Trust is the selected operator of the centre. Its chief executive, Harry Barton, said: "Seaton Jurassic is a project that has been more than a decade in the making."

"Seeing it for real, brand new, dramatic and sparkling in spring sunshine is an absolute thrill."

"And like all great treasures, the best bits are inside."

"I am just so grateful for all the support from the local community."

"I really hope they are as proud of the end result as I am."

The project was made possible thanks to grants and support from Devon County Council, Heritage Lottery Fund, Coastal Communities Fund, Seaton Town Council, Garfield Weston Foundation, Fine Family Foundation, Seaton Visitor Centre Trust, Blue Marine Foundation and Jurassic Coast Trust.

Advertiser's Announcement

Dawn and Sharon far from blue after winning Sapphire Award

SLIMMING WORLD Consultants Dawn Carter and Sharon Grove have proved they're weight-loss royalty after winning a Sapphire Award for their work in helping people in the area to slim down and improve their health.

The Consultants who run groups in Ottery St Mary and Honiton, were thrilled to receive the award for inspiring dozens of people in the local community to slim down.

The accolade sees the ladies becoming Sapphire Consultants. Sapphires stand for truth, sincerity and constancy and the award has been newly created for 2014 to celebrate Slimming World's 45th anniversary. It is given to all Consultants in the UK and Ireland who welcome 45 new members to their group over a two week period.

Slimming World was founded in 1969 by Margaret Miles-Bramwell, OBE FRSA, after she became frustrated at the restrictive diets and lack of non-judgmental support available for people who wanted to lose weight. Today, 47 years later, the organisation is still based on the same foundations. Slimming World members follow the club's Food Optimising eating plan, which encourages slimmers to make small, easy changes to the way they shop, cook and eat so they make healthier choices and lose weight without ever going hungry or feeling deprived. Slimmers also attend a weekly group to weigh in and receive support in a warm, friendly environment where they share their recipes, celebrate success and ideas for coping with challenges.

Dawn says: "More than two-thirds of the adult population are overweight including many that are so severely overweight that they're putting their health at risk and sadly children are struggling with their weight too."

Lots of people want to lose weight but they often don't know how. When members come to my group they tell me that they've tried losing weight before and it hasn't worked so they feel like failures. I reassure them that it isn't them who failed but the programme they followed, usually because the diet was too strict or because they didn't get the right support. This leaves people thinking that they can't do it – that they'll never succeed with any diet.

We are so proud to have achieved this award. This year Slimming World's celebrating 47 years of helping people to lose weight and keep it off". Dawn started her group in Ottery St Mary in January 2011 and Sharon started her group in Honiton in April 2004. It's this experience as well as latest research and behaviour change expertise and the wonderful training that all Consultants receive through the SW Academy which makes the organisation so enormously successful. Dawn herself is also celebrating as due to the popularity of Slimming World in Ottery St Mary she will be opening a brand new group on Saturday 9th April which will be held at the Kings School. Dawn says "I cant wait to welcome in some more new faces to our brand new group"

This brand new opening is hot on the heels of another new group which was opened recently in Honiton with Sam Eason who started a brand new Wednesday evening group too.

For more information on any of our groups please contact Sharon on 07963337178.

LED members get on their bikes, hit the STAFF and members at LED leisure centres took Sport Relief very seriously, attempting to 'travel around the world' by bike, treadmill, cross-trainer and pool over the course of 12 hours.

hard to accumulate a total distance equating to travelling once around the world.

A spokesperson said: "We estimate each centre needs to average 265km/hour. Our chosen route is 24,906 miles, and takes in cities such as Moscow, Beijing, Tokyo, Denver and Quebec along the way."

LED mascot Ledley visited some of the centres to offer support.

■ A TEAM of 32 JM DanceFit Zumba Divas from the Sidmouth, Sidford, Seaton, Newton Poppleford and Exeter classes successfully completed their three mile Sport Relief challenge by walking, zumbaing and wiggling their way around the Sidmouth Bays on March 20th.

The team of adults and children raised more than £3,000 for the charity and have held the top position on the UK Teams' Mile Leaderboard for the past three weeks.

JM DanceFit founder, Johanna Morgan, said: "I am incredibly proud of our team and their amazing fundraising efforts."

"The team is absolutely ecstatic with the amount they have managed to raise to help people who are less fortunate than ourselves."

"Our motto in class has always been 'alone we can do so little, together we can do so much' and, having raised the most funds in the whole of the UK as a team, demonstrates how when you put your minds together, there's no limit to what you can achieve."

"We would all like to say a huge thank you to all those who sponsored us. Together we have made a real difference."

The Gateway comes alive for 'Night of Style'

THE Gateway was buzzing when A Night of Style brought Seaton together for an evening of style and fun.

Organised by Chloe Lund of Fuchsia Fashion and creative artist Polly-Elizabeth on March 17th, the event featured home, health and fashion-orientated stalls.

An hour in, all eyes were fixed on the catwalk and the 22 models, of all ages, dressed in a range of designs.

The event was in aid of The Prince's Trust and raised £657.

Chloe said: "We are over the moon with the turnout and feel blessed with the support we had from the local community.

"It brought Seaton together, all in aid of an amazing cause.

"An all-round huge achievement. Thank you to all who came along."

The catwalk featured collections from local businesses Affär and Fuchsia Fashions, with hair and make-up by Tracy Cottam and Adele Foxwell of Totally Polished.

Live music was provided by drummer Dan Shaads, 12-year-old singer Phoebe Holmes-Simeon and vocalist and guitarist Tina Bridgman.

The event brought together many local companies who contributed to the raffle, donated time, or had stalls.

■ BACKSTAGE: The girls are getting ready

■ GENTLEMEN: A contingent of the male models who took part

■ GLAMOROUS: Garments from local shops were on show

East Devon solicitors appoint new Partner

BEVISS & BECKINGSALE has announced the appointment of a new Partner as part of ongoing development plans.

Emma Northover becomes a Partner with the East Devon firm of solicitors, which has offices in Honiton, Axminster, Chard and Seaton, from April 1.

Senior Partner Mark Ollier said: "Emma came to us as a trainee solicitor in October 2009 and from the start, we knew she was going to be a real asset to the firm.

"Emma has the rare ability to combine an intellectually bright mind with common sense and a pragmatic approach. She takes a great interest in her clients and always strives to do the best for them, which sits comfortably with the ethos we try to engender within the firm."

Emma joined Beviss & Beckingsale after obtaining an LLB Law degree at Cardiff University, and on qualifying as a solicitor in 2011, she became part of the litigation department. Based at the Honiton office, Emma deals with a range of civil litigation matters and has a particular interest in Contested Probate and Contested Trust work; one of her successful cases was reported in the All England Law Reports. She also handles issues regarding property ownership with regard to landlord and tenant disputes both in the commercial and residential sectors.

Emma works closely with the firm's Private Client department in relation to contested

Court of Protection work, which is when the family and friends of someone who cannot manage their own affairs do not agree on how that person's affairs should be looked after.

She said: "As soon as I joined Beviss & Beckingsale it struck me how client care was at the top of the firm's agenda. I share the partners' views as to what a law firm should be – accessible and friendly but simultaneously providing excellent professional advice supported by the latest technology. I am pleased to be able to assist clients across all four of our offices with a range of general litigation matters and I will be looking to build the firm's specialist areas of inheritance disputes and property disputes.

I am very excited to be playing a part in the future development and success of the firm."

Why no flag in gardens?

■ I HAVE noticed since moving to Seaton, we have a flagpole on Windsor Gardens WITHOUT our Union Flag or any flag flying on it! Why?

As I understand that it is illegal to fly the Union Flag on government buildings except on certain assigned days (i.e. the Queen's Birthday) but Windsor Gardens is not a government building – it's a small park!

I have broached this subject with the town clerk who agrees with the above and have also asked the Royal British Legion their views and they inform me that when the Union Flag was flown on unassigned days by them, they were instructed to remove it.

From my point of I have emailed our MP Neil Parish for guidance.

Does anyone else in Seaton have an opinion?

ERIC BOWMAN,

Time to embrace tech

■ CONGRATULATIONS to Councillor Paul Hayward for attempting to bring the workings of Axminster Town Council into the 21st century.

It appears that some of the methods used to allocate and spend public finances date back to Dickensian times.

Elected members bring a wide range of backgrounds and skills to the role and the council should ensure that Councillor Hayward is given the opportunity to use modern technology next year so that all members are viewing and changing budgets as a group.

Perhaps we could also ask the council to pursue another trend in modern technology and that is to support an electronic voting system.

Even Third World countries use this to record votes and it can minimise the bureaucracy of counting bits of paper and having recounts.

It gives accurate and instant results and would minimise fraudulent practice that was clearly prevalent during the last general election.

What a panto!

■ HAVE we missed the glowing acclamation of this year's Honiton Pantomime? Never has our buckle been so swashed! Have you lost the congratulatory letters or have they been pirated?

Honiton Community Theatre Company presented us with a cast of thousands. Well-remembered faces were there. Musical youth were there to give us hope for the future. The humour was a welcome alternative to the prevalent aggressive comedy regaled by modern comedians.

And the band? Great! So, thank you to all the crew. So, my darlings, we enjoyed it and we'll let those who didn't respond off the Hook!

Maybe the grateful epistles have been lost in the post or marooned on a mermaid-infested tropical island.

Yes, we were there. The Beehive was 'packed'. Do we really miss the grateful letters on the Honiton Pantomime? They are behind you!

DEREK RACKETT,
Honiton

The dreaded word 'change'

■ WOWEE! So Axminster has its own fully fledged 'rebel' councillor! So what does one have to do to be labelled a rebel?

Apparently, one only has to suggest modernising a council that is 'archaic and obsolete' by utilising computer technology to count costs, use of modern presentation facilities, and above all, suggesting the dreaded word 'change'.

Well, roll on all you budding 'rebels' – perhaps some of you who are 'concerned about the way the council is operating' might get together sort out The George, increase safety by pedestrianising Trinity Square, get the bypass built this century, and acknowledge the traffic and safety problems that exist and will increase for residents and business users in the Chard Road and Stoney Lane areas due to the new housing estate.

SEATON AND DISTRICT ART SOCIETY

ON MARCH 1st Seaton and District Art Society was entertained by Yorkshire artist Tony Hogan, who now lives and works in Cornwall.

Tony was born in Bradford, the second youngest of 12 children, raised by their poor widowed mother who recognised his talent and encouraged him to study art.

Aged 15, he went to Bradford School of Art for three years, and then became a carpet fitter – but that's another story.

Tony used a Cornish seascape photograph to demonstrate his preferred medium of pastel. He would much prefer to work outside with real landscape, but has to compromise for the demonstration.

His pastels are not the chalk-stick type familiar to most of us, but round and flat, arranged like water colours in a plastic tray.

Unlike water colour, they are not applied with a brush, but with a sponge, called a soffit, attached to a plastic applicator, like a window-cleaner's sponge on a stick, but much smaller.

There are so many colours available, but Tony thinks a limited palate works best; you only need six or seven at most.

Block in the big areas first and then switch to pastel pencils for tighter work and detail.

Purple, indigo and blue look visually better for shadows, light to dark or dark to light – it doesn't matter.

There is no right or wrong. If it works for you and makes you happy, do it.

And remember to protect the area you've done with a sheet of paper, or you'll smudge it and get dusty chalk all over your arms.

You don't need to fix your finished masterpiece. Pan Pastels do not smudge. But if you must do it, invest in fine art spray.

Never use hairspray! Do not ruin a good picture for the sake of saving £2.

Story of designer William Morris told at flower club

COLYFORD & DISTRICT FLOWER CLUB

THIS month's meeting was held on March 1st at Colyford Hall, writes SYLVIA HIBBERD.

A little different from usual, Olive Jacobs-Price gave a talk on the textile and wallpaper designer, William Morris.

He was born in 1834 in Walthamstow, Essex. As well as a designer, he was also an artist, writer, poet, translator and socialist. Morris trained as an architect and had early unfulfilled ambitions to be a painter.

As a student at Oxford he met the artist Edward Burne-Jones and through his friendship came into contact with the Pre-Raphaelite painters such as Rossetti and others in their circle.

In 1859 he married Jane Burden, an unconventional beauty and a favourite model for the Pre-Raphaelites.

He later commissioned a friend of his to build him a home on land he had bought in Bexleyheath, Kent.

William and his wife moved into Red House, named after the red bricks and red tiles it was constructed from, in 1860.

It took a year to build at a cost of £4,000, and another year to furnish and decorate. The house is now owned by The National Trust and open to visitors.

The couple went on to have two daughters, Jenny and Alice, and by 1862 William has designed his first pattern – 'the pomegranate' – with Jane's needlework. A lot of his designs were named after rivers in Kent.

Whilst retaining his London home, William rented the rural retreat of Kelmscott Manor in Oxfordshire where he published poems and novels, such as 'The Earthly Paradise' and 'The Well At The World's End'. By 1891 William had founded the Kelmscott Press.

After various careers and much travelling, Morris died in 1896 at the age of 62 in Hammersmith, London, and is buried in Kelmscott village churchyard.

It was a very interesting subject of which few club members knew anything about.

A vote of thanks was given by Janet Durrant. Members were then treated to an afternoon tea, along with the meeting's two visitors.

Jean Underdone was competition winner in the advanced class, with Angie Clark second and Kay White third. They had created their own interpretations of William Morris patterns.

The next meeting is on Tuesday, April 5th at Colyford Hall at 2.15pm – 'A Little Of What You Fancy' by Julia Harrison of Exmouth.

Everyone is welcome to join club members for a fun afternoon of flowers.

SIDMOUTH FLOWER ARRANGEMENT CLUB

PERHAPS it was because it was a beautiful afternoon we did not have such a large gathering as we sometimes do for our March meeting of Sidmouth Flower Arrangement Club, writes JUDY GREEN.

This was a shame because Pat Boundy, who came up from Bude, gave a very pleasing demonstration entitled 'Notes and Quotes', and the members' competition contained some really lovely spring bowls and baskets.

The 'Notes' in Pat's demonstration referred mostly to tales of life on the family farm in Cornwall and visits to America where one adult son is now living.

A couple of her containers had been brought back from the USA, no doubt to the amusement of the Customs Inspectorate.

One such, a metal latticework dish, was used for a fine display of all things spring, multi-coloured and naturalistic with a mini version to go with it.

A striking handmade container had been covered with red eucalyptus bark forming a dramatic base for a bright copper and orange horizontal. Some of the lilies used had been dyed and opinion was divided as to whether we approved of this or not.

My personal favourite of the afternoon was inspired by the 'Stowford Ring', a circle of trees by the A30 near Launceston. It was light and airy with a green and white colour scheme.

Quotes followed each completed piece, musical or poetic which gave an extra dimension to the inspiration behind the work.

Talking of inspiration, if you missed the Area Fund Raising Demonstration by Lucy Ellis last Saturday at Tiverton, what a shame. It was large scale, imaginative and really beautiful with a 'wow' finale. But that's another story.

Pie and pud fundraiser

HAWKCHURCH LADIES CLUB

THE March meeting of Hawkchurch Ladies' Club was a fundraising event.

After a shepherd's pie and pud supper, Matthew Denny from Duke's of Dorchester assessed and valued members treasures and family pieces.

He is a most engaging and informative speaker, and members and guests left after a very pleasant and interesting evening.

Our thanks to Matthew and also to the HLC kitchen team who worked so hard to get the evening off to a good start.

At our next meeting on April 5th, Dr Sarah Jones from Axminster Library is going to tell us about libraries and how they work.

For more information about HLC contact Anne Gibbins 01297 678295.

Clinical Hypnotherapy Michelle Hague

Irritable Bowel Syndrome (IBS) awareness and how hypnotherapy can help in more ways than one.

IF you have irritable bowel syndrome (IBS), you are not alone – IBS is common with worldwide prevalence estimated at 9% to 23%. Yet many people remain undiagnosed and unaware that their symptoms indicate a medically recognised disorder. A common long-term condition of the digestive system, it can cause bouts of stomach cramps, spasms, pain, bloating, diarrhea or constipation.

While it's causes are unknown it is thought to be related to food sensitivity and stress / anxiety related.

It is important to understand that your digestive system is as important as your brain, and responds to emotions as powerfully as your heart, yet most of us understand very little about how the gut functions.

You know how your stomach and digestion react when you are feeling low and sluggish, or how your anger or anxiety effects your appetite, well, your mood can irritate not just your emotional and mental well being but also your physical health too. When you have a relaxed healthy digestive tract, you will be feeling physically and mentally healthier too.

So how can hypnotherapy help? One of the main known aspects of hypnotherapy is that anxiety/stress are inhibited by relaxation. This means that it is impossible to feel the two opposing emotional states at the same time. This is a basic principal of working with hypnosis. If a state of relaxation is maintained then balance the bodies natural homeostasis can be re calibrated, step by step. Education and learning about the foods, which are irritants, start the process, with on going relaxation techniques and management, the aim being that individuals are taught how to help themselves.

Hypnotherapy isn't a quick fix, it takes practice and a small amount of effort on the part of the patient, but once the therapist has helped to teach and installed the direct suggestions and metaphorical stories and analogies, then the body can start to respond, to the feelings of well being, as balance is once again restored.

Research recognised by the NHS and NICE in the UK has shown that IBS responds extremely well to clinical hypnotherapy.

Hypnotherapists can't control you, they cannot make you do anything you don't want to do. Hypnosis isn't sleep, and you don't go anywhere, you just learn to relax, and as you relax and listen and hear all the suggestions that are made for your well-being, so you start to respond to those suggestions.

Always make sure the person you see is qualified and insured and has trained properly. Students who study to practitioner level will have trained for three years, and continue to develop their learning, the BSCH and CNHC hold lists of registered qualified people.

Podiatrist/Chiropodist Lindy Parry

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

Traditional Acupuncture Val Davis

Acupuncture can improve and maintain health and energy and enhance a sense of well-being

ACCORDING to traditional Chinese philosophy, our health is dependent on the body's motivating energy (qi) moving in a smooth and balanced way through a series of channels beneath the skin.

Acupuncture can affect the quality of qi, your body's vital energy, by the insertion of very fine needles into specific points along these channels. This stimulates the body's healing response and restores natural balance. Treatment is aimed at the root cause of your condition as well as your main symptoms. This approach helps with resolving your problem and enhancing your feeling of well-being. You may notice other niggling problems resolve as your main health complaint improves.

The type of conditions that I mostly see in my clinics include the following: arthritis, back pain and sciatica, poor circulation, low energy levels, hormonal/menopausal symptoms, pregnancy management, fertility problems, weight management, and addictions such as smoking. However, you don't have to be ill in the conventional sense to benefit from acupuncture, sometimes people come to see me because they are feeling low, unwell in themselves, or maybe not sleeping as well as they would like to.

Professional Acupuncturists spend at least 3 years training at degree level to become an Acupuncturist. We are then entitled to join the British Acupuncture Council and to use the letters Lic.Ac., B.Ac.C after our names. We also have public liability and professional indemnity insurance. Many of us have also studied at post-graduate level and are constantly updating our skills and experience.

So, why not give me a ring and see if I can help.

Clinical Hypnotherapy Samantha Davey

Are you struggling to keep your new year's resolutions?

ARE you struggling to keep your new year's resolutions? If so hypnotherapy can help to build your motivation and determination, overcome negative beliefs and thoughts holding you back, release old behaviour patterns and achieve the goals you're aiming for.

Samantha Davey, a registered hypnotherapist, clears up a common misconception when she says that clients maintain control throughout hypnosis. She says, "No one can be made to do or say anything against their will and you'll automatically reject any suggestions that don't feel right for you." She continues, "Clients are often surprised that hypnosis feels quite ordinary – just like sitting relaxing with your eyes closed or daydreaming. Most people find it a very relaxing, calming and up-lifting experience."

Hypnotherapy is a safe, enjoyable and proven therapy that often brings rapid results. It can help with a wide range of issues including weight loss, stopping smoking, anxiety, stress, depression, confidence, sleep problems and phobias.

Bowen Therapy & Energy Healing Melanie Philip

IS ILLNESS AND PAIN YOUR BODY BETRAYING YOU?

WHEN we don't feel good ALL OF IT IS HARD, right!

And when all of it feels hard it is easy to believe it is our bodies fault and if only it was working properly everything would be fine.

The truth is that our bodies are loyal servants and a sacred vessel for our human journey in time it does not know betrayal!

It is designed to heal itself and operate in a state of grace, harmony and balance. If you find yourself in a state of chronic or acute pain/illness and you feel confused about how it is that this has occurred know that this is a calling from nature to wake up and reset yourself as something in your life is not working.

Behind almost every health condition lies deep within us an emotional story, maybe just one or a whole cascade of events and trauma's that have played out over time.

Our beautifully sensitive bodies took all of that on nothing forgotten as we went through the experience emotionally and now finally what is showing up for you now physically is just your body asking you for your attention and resolution.

My work with the body using Bowen Therapy and Energy work taps into the rich ancient reservoir of the body's natural wisdom bringing about change physically, energetically and emotionally.

I am offering a very special introductory offer for new clients to explore the nature of their condition and bring themselves back into a healthy state of wellbeing.

Sterling Preservation Limited

Don't let Beetles play in your Loft!

SPRING heralds the beginning of "woodworm season" when the common furniture beetle begins to emerge from the centre of timbers where it's been eating during the winter. Their presence is detected by little round holes often coupled with deposits of dust.

Given the right conditions beetles can infest a wide variety of timber, both soft and hardwoods including structural building timbers, furniture and wooden ornaments. If left unchecked infestations can lead to severe structural weakening and eventually total collapse.

But treated early with an effective woodworm insecticide, common furniture beetles don't pose a major risk to structural durability.

Have your Timbers treated without delay ensuring 10 years Peace of Mind. Call STERLING PRESERVATION LIMITED today 07771 666 938.

Greenshutters Nurseries & Garden Centre

GREENSHUTTERS Nurseries & Garden Centre is a family run business nestled in the heart of the Somerset countryside. It is open 7 days a week and stocks an extensive range of plants. The Garden Centre has completely changed in the last few years with the layout being completely re-designed. There are new entrances from the road and into the Plant Area and the old-fashioned wooden greenhouse has been restored to its former glory with its bright, white painted wood. Most of the plants are now on tables so you don't have to bend down to look at them and the layout has been designed to make the walk around the plant area enjoyable.

This year Greenshutters Garden Centre is stocking a much larger range of herbaceous perennials and roses, including new and unusual varieties. There is also a new range of quality garden benches dotted among the plants, so you are welcome to wander around the garden centre and take a rest as you go. You can even sit and enjoy the view over Taunton Vale and the Quantocks.

The business also incorporates EVER-GREENHEDGING.co.uk, one of the largest stockists of evergreen hedging plants in the country. Thousands of plants are grown every year on the nursery from small to large, mature hedging plants; the best sellers being Laurel, Leylandii, Photinia 'Red Robin' and Portugal Laurel. These are delivered locally or nationwide or can be collected from Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre.

Greenshutters is run by Dr Roger Eavis, who bought the nursery in 1998 and the business has grown steadily every year since then. "We pride ourselves on good customer service and advice, good quality plants and I hope we have created a pleasant place to wander and enjoy the plants," says Roger, "We have a great team of staff who are always willing to help and give advice". Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre is well worth a visit.

Sidmouth Landscaping

SIDMOUTH LANDSCAPING have had a busy, if somewhat frustrating winter, due to the wet weather. However a couple of dry weeks have lifted our spirits and allowed us to catch up on all the projects in hand.

This is always a busy period for enquires as customers look at how to improve their outdoor living areas, so don't delay and ask us for advice sooner than later as we always give you a firm date to start work, once terms are agreed.

One area that has concerned me this winter is the perennial problem of decking which looks great for a few years but soon becomes very slippery in wet weather or frost. I can now provide a permanent solution to the problem by through cleaning of the original surface and installing strips of fiberglass in the original grooves and then treating the whole area with a non slip stain. New non slip decking is also available.

Wildflower Meadows. I am an accredited installer of 'Wildflower Turf' or 'Wildflower Earth'. This product is supplied by the company which supplied the wildflower areas for the opening ceremony of the London Olympics. Although much more expensive than normal turf the finished area requires little maintenance apart from an annual cut in the autumn and is a haven for wildlife and very attractive. No lawnmowing required!

Most of the projects we get involved with at Sidmouth Landscaping involve 'hard landscaping' i.e. patios, driveways, walling fencing etc but we do love variety, so whatever you are planning in your garden this year do please give us a call and we will be happy to discuss your requirements

Axminster Garden Machinery

AXMINSTER Garden Machinery is the wholesale factory appointed dealer for the increasingly popular Walker Mowers in the South West.

Phil Roper, who has worked in the horticultural industry as a garden machinery expert for over 32 years, formed Axminster Garden Machinery in 1999. As a sales engineer and manager this background gives Phil the chance to offer all of his customers expert knowledge when either choosing either new or used equipment, and he can also give customers honest advice or recommendation.

Phil advises that the Walker Mower is up to 25% more productive than other zero turn mowers. The range offers compact machines that can get in and out of places others can't. They are easy to manoeuvre with precision steering. Due to the low centre of gravity and balanced weight distribution the Walker has excellent stability.

The operator also has a full view of the mower deck and the grass in front of and beside it.

Phil personally and carefully selects every piece of new machinery and equipment Axminster Gardens Machinery sell, and has used and tested all the machinery they offer. With a large showroom and parts department as well as a fully equipped workshop, it is possible to actually view and handle virtually every type of machinery they supply.

Axminster Garden Machinery are an independent horticultural and ground care equipment Specialist, and pride themselves on the fact that they are factory main appointed dealers, for this gives the customer peace of mind when it comes to spares or repairs or servicing. When repairing machinery, Axminster Garden Machinery firmly believes in quality engineering and design. They can provide the full backup.

Their aim is to know that the customer's needs and concerns have been met to give them quality, user-friendly equipment at the right price.

Axminster Garden Machinery are small enough to care and big enough to cope.

Eden Garden Fencing & Landscaping

Eden Garden Fencing and Landscaping

AT EDEN Garden Fencing and Landscaping based in Seaton, Devon we have been building and installing quality Fencing, Gates and Decking, along with Landscaping, for some 15 years. This makes finding a Fencing Contractor simple by providing for all clients' requirements, large and small locally. The timber products side of Landscapers, Eden Garden Developments, offers a friendly, professional, integrated service and the Seaton, Devon base covers a 30 mile radius.

A timely example, given the present gusty conditions, is Garden Fencing, where this can be replaced or repaired, depending upon condition and the budget available. This can be either Close Board, Panel (with or without Trellis), Post and Rail or Picket Fencing. Eden Garden Fencing and Landscaping also supply and fit Gates (see insets). Whilst we take pride in installing robust and durable fencing products, "cost leadership" is still at the forefront of the business, whilst keeping quality and the principles of design foremost. Much of the work can be done during Autumn and Winter when the ground is less compacted and this time is also perfect for renovating the garden generally. So by Spring many garden improvements can be ready to be enjoyed.

There is now a dedicated Timber Products website, www.edengardenfencing.co.uk, giving examples of the range and quality of workmanship. Additionally, information can be obtained by calling 01297 23596 (mobile 07977 415446) or visiting the general web pages at www.a1-environmental.com

LEESONS OF HONITON

- Glass & Metal Engraving • Watch Straps & Batteries
- Gifts • Trophies • Key Cutting • Dartington Glass
- Batteries • Photo Frames • Pewter Tankards,
- Hip Flasks • Padlocks • Cuff Links & much more!

Leesons of Honiton are celebrating being a popular fixture in the town for over thirty years.

THE engraving business was originally created by craftsmen Dennis Lee after this hobby turned into a career and Leesons is now being run by his son Neil. Originally opened on the high street, Leesons moved to a larger shop in New Street and will soon be celebrating 10 years at this location.

Neil's father, Dennis, a plumber by trade, took up glass engraving as a hobby in 1981 to keep busy after his children had grown up and left home, four years later he had opened the doors for Lesson's for the first time. As he progressed he grew in confidence, engraving for friends and relatives and travelling to craft fairs up and down the country. Originally Dennis would sketch the outline of the design with a chinagraph or grease pencil and then engrave by hand using a diamond tipped tool and a heavy duty dentist style drill.

With increases in technology and computing, Neil no longer has to carry on the same process as his father by engraving the work by hand. Instead Neil can use a computer to work out the design and let technology take it from there. Diamond tipped drills and even lasers are now used to engrave the designs on to the glass or metal. Designs can also be put on slate or wood. What would usually take one man several days of time consuming and painstaking work, now means that, that Neil can get through two or three pieces a day, with out compromising on the finished product.

Visitors to the shop can buy anything from metal tankards to glass tumblers engraved in any style or design. The pieces make ideal gifts for birthdays, christenings, weddings, anniversaries, retirements or farewells.

The shop has ventured out somewhat since it first opened and now also supplies key cutting facilities as well as essentials for watch maintenance and myth and magic figurines amongst other great gift ideas.

Since the shop opened in 1985 the work produced by Leesons has gone all over the world including Australia, France, Denmark, New Zealand and Bahrain.

A CRAFTSMAN'S HOBBY GREW INTO A BUSINESS

LEESONS began in 1985 as a small Glass Engraving Shop on Honiton High Street and was named "Dennis Lee Glass Engraving" after the founder of the company and owner at the time. Dennis can be seen in the photograph on the left engraving in the back of the shop, which he invited customers to come and see during the summer months. Dennis Lee started this business that stemmed from a hobby and became a real talent with his work going all over the world. The shop offered various gifts that could be personalised to request. Little did Dennis know that his hobby would become the thriving business that it is today, with his son Neil continuing the legacy.

Kris Drever brings new album tour to Devon

TO SIMPLY call Kris Drever DREVER 'a folksinger' would be like saying that LAU, the acclaimed band in which he also sings and plays, is 'a Scottish folk trio'. Both true descriptions but reductive ones that only hint at the progressive joys contained in the music of each.

Kris Drever launches into 2016 with a brand new studio album 'If Wishes Were Horses', and a supporting tour. With it he celebrates his first decade as an acclaimed solo artist and songwriter. The new album is his first for six years (during which time his band Lau have established themselves as the most widely acclaimed and musically progressive trio in British folk music).

'If Wishes Were Horses' is a collection of semi-biographical songs covering the universal, and not so universal, themes of education, politics, sex, love, ennui, self-employment, social migration and Shetland. Drever's recent outpouring of songs stems from a move back to the Northern Isles, Shetland this time rather than his native Orkney and the discovery of new lyrical voices to describe his life, times and wild new surroundings.

Helping Kris to realise this album are the renowned guitar genius Ian Carr, ace bassist Euan Burton and Admiral Fallow frontman Louis Abbott on drums and vocals.

For the concert tour, alongside the new material from 'If Wishes Were Horses', Kris will revisit old songs from across his back catalogue playing many outside of the recording studio for the first time. Fans can get involved by posting, on his Facebook page, old songs they would like to hear; Kris will then pick from those selections.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT ILMINSTER ARTS CENTRE THIS APRIL

THE unique landscape and seasonal colours of the Blackdown Hills are the inspiration behind our current exhibition. 'Colour in the Hills' features painter and ceramicist June Dobson, landscape artist Rosemary Ward-Smith, and weaver Louise Cottey. The three artists all live and work in the beautiful Blackdowns and their artwork will transform the Arts Centre into its own Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty for the duration. Until April 9th.

The 2016 Open Photographic Exhibition offers a fascinating 'snapshot' of contemporary West Country photography. The competition is open to all photographers, be they amateur or professional, and the works chosen by the selectors will display a wide range of subjects, techniques and formats. The show opens Monday 11th and runs until Friday 29th.

On Friday 8th we welcome Exeter-based vocalist Annika Skoogh and her Quartet to the Meeting House. Annika is known for her adventurous explorations of jazz and latin music, through alternative time signatures, re-harmonisations and a modern aesthetic. A multi-linguist, she sometimes rings the changes by singing in different languages! With special guest, tenor saxophonist Ben Waghorn.

Four young jazz creatives come to the Arts Centre on Saturday 23rd. The Sam Crockatt Quartet play lyrical jazz with a melodic touch that is a joy to listen to. Their first album 'Howeird' won album of the year in the Parliamentary jazz awards; their latest 'Mells with Abigail Willis

Bells' takes its inspiration from Crockatt's home village in Somerset.

The Craig Milverton Trio return to the Arts Centre on Friday 29th, to 'play tribute' to legendary British jazz pianist and composer, Sir George Shearing. The Shearing Quintet was hugely popular in the 50s and 60s and Craig's trio, joined by Dominic Ashworth and Paul Sawtell, will recreate many of Shearing's original close harmony arrangements.

For hands-on creative fun come along to one of our popular arts and crafts workshops. In addition to our regular clay sculpture, oils, acrylics, watercolours and drawings sessions, our April line-up includes Crazy Patchwork on Friday 1st, Dorset Buttons on Tuesday 5th, Readers Group on Friday 8th, Felting on Friday 15th, Knit Stitch and Crochet on Thursday 21st, Fabric Fusion on Friday 22nd, and Rag Rugs on Friday, April 29th.

If you enjoy coming to the Arts Centre as a visitor, have you considered supporting us by becoming a Volunteer? We offer a friendly working environment, and volunteering is a great way to meet new people and learn new skills. We currently have vacancies for volunteers in the Café, on the front desk and for gallery stewards. If you can spare a morning or afternoon on a regular basis, we would love to hear from you.

Jeff Rosenstock's last minute 'world tour' heads to Exeter

AFTER a whirlwind year promoting his latest solo album, 'We Cool?', Jeff Rosenstock will finally bring his frenetic live show to the UK and Europe this March immediately following his headlining tour in Australia. Jeff will bring along his friends in Great Cynics for support on the entire tour.

Jeff Rosenstock's latest record 'We Cool?' embodies the same attitude of his days in the recently laid to rest collective Bomb The Music Industry all the while crafting his own twisted version of an indie-pop/punk hit. Jeff Rosenstock has always had a penchant for keeping things weird and fun. He's unapologetically himself always and 'We Cool?' is no different.

London trio Great Cynics take the hazy punk rock sound of The Lemonheads and mix it with Billy Bragg's romance. Rooted in DIY punk, the trio's third album 'I Feel Weird' was released last year to critical acclaim. They've shared stages with a multitude of like-minded groups including Against Me!, Deer Tick, Off With Their Heads, The Smith Street Band and Anti-Flag among others, with Jeff Rosenstock being the latest artist to take them out on the road. This is Great Cynics' first UK tour since July last year. Stay tuned for more new music from the band in 2016.

Jeff Rosenstock brings his tour to The Cavern, Exeter tomorrow (Wednesday, March 30th).

For more details visit www.exetercavern.com. Tickets £7 on the door.

The David Hall

FOLK • ROOTS • ACOUSTIC • JAZZ • BLUES • DANCE • THEATRE • FILM

MARCH got off to a great start musically when, on Saturday 5th, a large audience enjoyed the first visit to The David Hall of the 'super group', Leveret.

This trio has, in a very short space of time, built a really large fan base and receive rave reviews wherever they perform. It was easy to see why! Andy Cutting, Sam Sweeney and Rob Harbron presented a breathtaking performance of music rooted in the English Tradition but played in a fresh and modern style.

The evening was made all the better thanks to a wonderful support set from local singer/fiddle player, Hannah Cumming. Hannah is a real talent and is certainly someone to watch in the future (she will be performing at Pertherton Folk Fest on Saturday 18th June).

On Friday 11th we welcomed Cotswold-based duo, The Black Feathers. A night of brilliant harmony and great guitar playing charmed and captivated in equal measure. Another act with a really bright future ahead!

The last gig before Easter was from 'one of Britain's top Folk musicians' when the multi-talented Somerset-based Ange Hardy performed. She was accompanied on stage by bassist and guitarist, Lukas Drinkwater. This was an amazing gig which we will repeat at some time in the future. Ange has a wonderful voice and is also skilled on guitar, low whistles, harp, shruti box and much more. Ange is without doubt one of the most diverse artistes you are likely to encounter. This was a memorable gig.

April will be a very busy month with four great music gigs.

Firstly, Friday 8th sees a return visit by the ever-popular and totally unique Stompin' Dave – who, for this gig, will be bringing his Blue Grass Band with him. This is a Bluegrass 'super group' who have made headline appearances at National Banjo day in London and The Tolpuddle Martyrs Festival. Their performance at The David Hall will be a night full of many musical surprises.

On Saturday, April 16th we will be delighted to welcome for their first performance in Petherton the fantastic Benjamin Folke Thomas and his band.

I was blown away when I first saw them, some two years ago. If you love Country-Rock or Americana you will be amazed both with the quality of the material and the group's superb musical skills. Not yet a household name - but I really believe they have the right formula to become so in the near future. I cannot recommend this night's gig enough!

Following her sell-out performance in 2014, on Friday, April 22nd, Kathryn Tickell returns, with The Side. As expected, this gig has already sold out. Kathryn is without doubt the finest Northumbrian Pipe player in the country and I am already planning to get her back in 2018.

Finally, on Saturday, April 23rd, the very talented Keith James returns, this time performing the music of two of Folk music's greatest talents, namely Nick Drake and John Martyn.

Keith will take you back to the years of 1969 to 1976, which was an incredibly golden period of musical freedom and self expression. Great to have Keith with us again!

I'm sure that I will see many of you at The Octagon on Thursday 28th for the Show of Hands 'Long Way Home' tour performance, which we at The David Hall are supporting

Just a quick reminder for your diary that the Folk Fest in South Petherton on Saturday, June 18th will be better and bigger than ever. I will give you more details next month.

Spring is now officially with us which, together with the music, should put a smile on all of our faces.

*Enjoy!, Pete Wheeler
Petherton Arts Trust*

Further events at The David Hall in April

Petherton Picture Show will present three films. They are The Lobster (15), with Colin Farrell, Rachel Weisz and Ben Wishaw, on Friday 1st; Carol (15), starring Cate Blanchett, Rooney Mara and Sarah Paulson, on Friday 15th and In the Heart of the Sea (12), with Chris Hemsworth, Brendan Gleeson and Cillian Murphy, on Friday, April 29th.

Another popular David Hall Music Quiz will take place on Saturday, April 2nd at 7.30pm. Test your knowledge, enjoy your supper – and raise money for The David Hall and Petherton Folk Fest 2016. Maximum 4 people per team. Tickets cost £6.00, including supper, and must be booked by Wednesday 30th March.

On Sunday, April 17th there will be a Wine Dance (a Tea Dance with alcohol for those who like it!) from 3.30 – 5.30pm. This event will be very retro, with great music from the 1930s and 1940s, played on original gramophones – and there will also be the opportunity to learn a few steps with a trained dance teacher.

Performance Night is scheduled for Sunday, April 24th, 7.30pm – 10.30pm. All styles and forms of performance welcome – not just music. To perform, please email folk@chriswatts.org

The David Hall's popular monthly Coffee Morning will be on Wednesday, April 27th, 10am – 12pm, with real coffee and home-made cakes, book and bric-a-brac stalls and live music.

For further details about any of the above please check the website www.thedavidhall.org.uk or call 01460 240 340.

Returning to raise some hell!

THE one and only 'Hellrazor' will return to Winstons Bar & Grill in Seaton this Friday (April 1st) for a hard-rocking show.

For the uninitiated these are the Hells Bells boys as their alter ego playing the best in classic rock from Purple, Zeppelin and Sabbath to the current era with the likes of Queen of the Stone Age, Guns and Roses, Alterbridge and Metallica among many others.

Lead singer Lee explained: "due to the AC/DC commitments we have little chance to do this, probably four or five times a year, but we had such a blast last year at Winstons we decided this was one of the few venues that we were going to put this show on".

Expect nothing more than an explosive show and with tickets selling fast this looks like being another sell out!

Tickets are £10 in advance, £13 on the night and are available from Winstons, Beer Village Stores and Axe Music in Axminster.

As well as their website and Lemonrock page, Winstons also have a full list of events on a sheet which can be picked up from the bar.

Psychic Vibration on the Medium Wave

Don's miss this emotional rollercoaster ride of an evening – a night to remember

EX-HAIRDRESSER Steve Holbrook, regarded by many as one of the UK's top Clairvoyant Mediums, is visiting locally very shortly, and he explains how he hears the voices of our loved ones that have passed away. His ability started from behind the salon chair, and he now visits Theatres and Hotels around the country, and as far as the Caribbean, demonstrating his unique ability to act as a telephone exchange between this world and the Spirit world.

Steve says that he was always aware from being a child that life existed beyond the grave, when he awoke to find five soldiers marching through his bedroom, but could only see the top half of them floating through the room. "This was very unnerving experience but it was to give me an early glimpse of what was to come, and now it's as natural as breathing to me"

Steve started work in Leeds city centre in a busy hairdressing salon, and feels that the years he spent behind the chair, having that personal contact with the customers, stimulated this rare, yet natural ability to hear the voices of spirits. People used to come in and book for their hair cut, and often got more than they bargained for when he passed on a message from their loved one. Steve was always the busiest stylist, and had a 6 week waiting list if people didn't re-book immediately, and says "I often wonder if they kept coming back for my ability as a hair stylist, or the possibility that they might receive a message from a relative who had passed away!"

He now gives messages of re-assurance to people who have lost their loved ones, and by communicating with them, helps them understand that life continues, just simply in a different dimension. One lady's mum came through to her in one of Steve's messages, and said to the daughter "don't forget the brown Prada handbag on Friday". The lady replied

"I'm putting it in my mums coffin on Friday, she only died 5 days ago". Who would know this information?

One of Steve's best friends is the multi-talented Jane MacDonald, singer and co-presenter on ITV's Loose Women. Steve met Jane in a Spiritualist Church many years ago, and predicted she would be on BBC TV as part of a cruise entertainment documentary. She didn't believe it, but the year after it came true, and she was the star of The Cruise, the first docu-soap, and she had the biggest selling debut album of all time. She has dedicated her auto-biography to Steve, calling him her inspiration and guru, and can't thank him enough for being there when she needs guidance.

Steve has three books out, 'Light in the Darkness', 'Out of this World', and 'Survival', and these all offer a true insight into the day-to-day life of a working medium, Steve's beliefs on many areas of Spiritualism, and a great background to Steve's life.

Steve has raised tens of thousands of pounds for charities over the years, £50000 for his local hospice in Wakefield, £5000 for MacMillan Support, and most recently our current total for PACT – a charity that helps terminally ill children and their parents across the country – is almost £21000. He is dedicated to raising funds and awareness for this charity.

BUYER BOOKS HOLIDAY BOLTHOLE

A GROUND-FLOOR flat in a period property above Seaton Hole went under the hammer for £59,000 when it came to auction.

Flat 2 at Highclyffe Court in Highclyffe Road was among the West Country lots listed for sale by the regional land and property auctioneers Clive Emson Auctioneers.

It has the remainder of a 999-year lease from January 1986 and an equal share of the freehold.

Auctioneer Scott Gray said: "We expected keen interest in this super investment opportunity in a large period property on the renowned Jurassic Coast.

"The new owner has the option for rental or event to use it as a holiday bolthole themselves in one of the most beautiful parts of the country."

The one-bedroom apartment has a current peppercorn ground rent of £1 per annum and a quarterly service charge of £250.

Scott added: "We had our busiest sales room for three years as our strong start to 2016 continued."

Clive Emson Auctioneers, an independent company, holds eight rounds of auctions at five locations from Essex to Cornwall on consecutive days every six weeks, this time with a total of 170 lots.

Starting at 11am, the third of Clive Emson's eight regional West Country auctions in 2016 takes place at the St Mellion International Resort, St Mellion, Cornwall, on Friday May 6. Entries close on April 4.

SEAT launches UK crowd-sourcing competition for new Ateca SUV 'First Edition' MG is offering egg-cellent deals this Easter

TO COINCIDE with the launch of Ateca, its first SUV, SEAT UK is launching a new crowd-sourcing competition, 'Decided by you', which will see the British public help refine the look and specification of a special edition of its eagerly-awaited latest model.

Brits have one of the largest appetites for SUVs in Europe, not to mention their own inimitable sense of style. So, with such discerning taste in mind, the Barcelona-based brand is seeking to tap into the British psyche to create an SUV which will slot seamlessly into today's hectic lifestyles.

The competition, at <https://yourseateca.seat.co.uk/firstedition>, is open now until 22 April 2016, and will see users define the style and substance of the Ateca 'First Edition', based on what type of person they are and the life they lead. The online competition will automatically show seven questions, each with two possible answers. Based on the data it uncovers, and the 192 possible outcomes, the portal will generate a profile of that person's character and an Ateca to suit their lifestyle needs. Whether they are an extrovert who would appreciate the finer details of bi-colour alloy wheels and tinted windows, or a techie who would love the car's Full Link, Top View Camera, Park Assist and electric tailgate features, the possibilities with SEAT's first SUV are lengthy.

The data collected during the campaign will help inform SEAT on the exterior styling and equipment list of the eventual UK only Ateca 'First Edition'. Revealed and available to order on 1 May, together with full pricing and specification for the rest of the range, the first cars will be in UK showrooms from September.

The competition winner will receive a holiday for a family of four worth around £3,000, to beautiful Barcelona, SEAT's home city. Full terms and conditions are available on the competition homepage, while the official hashtag is #yourSEATAteca.

MG MOTOR UK is making sure your Easter weekend gets off to a 'cracking' start with the arrival of its new, unbelievable deal.

Do you want to get your hands on a brand new MG3? Well you can drive one away for as little as £99 per month (terms and conditions apply). The new offer, which is available on the MG3 3Form Sport, is a real money saver meaning you won't have to shell out too much.

With an MG Motor UK contribution of £900, customers need only put down a deposit of £2,999 and pay as little as £99 per month for this great car.

The MG3 3Form Sport, which is £9,899 on the road, comes with great specification, including 16" 'Carousel' alloy wheels, Bluetooth audio streaming, DAB digital radio and a host of personalisation options to make your car stand out on the road.

Matthew Cheyne, Head of Sales and Marketing for MG, said: "The great thing about our cars is that they're already affordable so, when we bring in offers like this that make them even more affordable, it's definitely worth dropping by your local dealer to take a look. We're also giving you a free gift if you take a test drive.

"The MG3 is our best seller and it's not hard to see why, it's a great car that comes with a lot of specification for very little money. With a £99 per month payment, take advantage of this fantastic deal while you can!"

Seven-up Tigers targeting top six finish

Vere at the double as Vikings resurgence continues – Farway in promotion hunt

MIDWEEK RESULTS

Wednesday, March 23rd

AN own goal saw COLYTON bank three points from their Devon & Exeter League Division One trip to face lowly Budleigh Salterton Reserves.

Friday, March 25th

SW PENINSULA D1 (E)

SIDMOUTH TOWN 2

BUDLEIGH SALTERTON 1

A THIRD win on the spin maintained Sidmouth Town's fine form in 2016.

The Vikings struck early when an inch-perfect cross from Connor Swingler found Cameron Vere unmarked at the far post.

The visitors responded well with Aaron Deny orchestrating things in midfield but they came up against keeper Dec Lines in MoM form. Sidmouth should have doubled their lead just before the interval but former Sidbury United man Dave Green dragged a shot wide when well-placed.

Budleigh equalised ten minutes after the turnaround when Deny capitalised on an error from defender Anthony Griffiths.

They continued to press but the young Greens, far from their best, absorbed the pressure and scored what proved to be the winner midway through the half when Vere diverted a swinger shot into the net.

Vikings: Lines, Binion, Newbery, Griffiths, White, Green, Farrington, Davies (Capt), Swingler, Vere, Orchard. Subs used: Evans, Cox, Bodor. Unused: Burrows, Allen.

Sidmouth visit by Crediton Utd yesterday (Monday) was postponed. The team visit Bovey Tracey next Saturday.

Saturday, March 26th

SW PENINSULA D1 (E)

OKEHAMPTON 0 AXMINSTER TOWN 7 A HAT-TRICK from Liam Cleal and further goals from MoM Gary Spiller (2), Luke Finn and centre-back Elliott Dyer helped Axminster Town to their biggest away win of the season.

Cleal opened the scoring in the fifth minute and the Tigers never looked back against a team that sit bottom of the table without a point to their name.

Dyer struck just before the half-hour and Cleal made it 3-0 at half-time.

Finn and Spiller got in on the act before the hour-mark. Cleal then completed his triple and Spiller rounded things off 11 minutes from time.

Ax appear to be in with a realistic shout of a creditable top six finish.

Tigers: Sc Wells-Burr, M.Smale, B.Clay, C.Duchenski, E.Dyer, G.Spiller, L.Cleal, O.Latas, N.Warren, L.Finn, T.Pinder. Subs: C.Garrett, B.Miller, G.Macauley.

Next up for Axminster is Saturday's visit by GALTAMPTON UNITED (3pm).

WINCHESTER 3 MILLWEY RISE 0
Division Six

SATURDAY'S result was a 3-0 disappointment for Millwey after they had seemingly taken the lead through Levi Hoole writes Dick Sturch.

However the celebrations were quickly dashed when he was adjudged offside.

From that moment on they were on the backfoot as their opponents played fast, direct football.

Although their first goal after 35 minutes was the result of an unfortunate error, it was no more than they deserved as they had hit the upright minutes before. Their second went in direct from a corner.

The second half was more of the same with Millwey making little impression on their opponents defence while their own was put under constant pressure.

The third goal came from a corner when a Winchester player had enough time, in a packed defence, to place a header far beyond the reach of Millwey's stranded keeper.

Although the result was disappointing there were some positives to take away. Mike Knight is now available after injury. There is competition for team places and, even in defeat, the team spirit was obvious.

Two players worthy of a mention were Danny Larcombe in defence and Nathan Wormesley who covered every inch of the field.

UPLOWMAN 7 BEER ALBION RES 0

D&E Division 5

BEER Albion Reserves were trounced 7-0 away at title favourites Uplowman on a wet and miserable Saturday.

The conditions were extremely difficult with a strong wind blowing straight down the pitch. Also most of the playing area became waterlogged due to heavy rain just minutes after kick off.

Nevertheless it was Beer who went close early on when the home keeper pushed Sam White's 25 yarder on to the bar. Two minutes later Billy Long's effort was saved by the keeper.

Uplowman went 1-0 up after 20 minutes when a shot from 20 yards skidded in. Beer keeper Chris Driver was under constant pressure but made some goods saves to keep his side in the game.

However he was beaten again on 35 minutes and any hopes of Beer getting back into the game were shattered by a three-goal blitz in the first 10 minutes of the second half.

Beer produced fleeting moments of good football and sub Adam Brewer hit the underside of the bar from close range in the 71st minute after a great run from Jacob Claude.

But the home side finished with a flourish adding two more goals on 72 and 82 minutes.

NEWTON ST CYRES 2NDS became the first team this season to stop Division 6 title favourites & Devon Intermediate cup finalists WHIPTON & PINHOE.

The Cyres beat their visitors 5-2 with goals from Josh Jones 2, Pete Bainborough, Tom Blackmore and Jamie Farrell with a 30-yard screamer.

TOPSHAM TOWN won the crucial Premier tussle against fellow high flyers FENITON 1-0 thanks to a Dylan Dare strike.

Last year's beaten East Devon Senior cup finalists HATHERLEIGH TOWN are hoping they can get there again when they face Beer Albion tomorrow afternoon at Furzebrake.

Josh French and Martin Hancock both scored twice as SEATON TOWN won 4-3 at WILLAND ROVERS whose manager Jon Veale has left to join Exmouth Town.

BICKLEIGH dropped vital points in their quest for the Division One title being held 1-1 by ALPHINGTON, and SIDMOUTH TOWN were also disappointed after being checked 2-2 by COLYTON whose goals came from James Salter and Nathan Maddox.

LYME REGIS won 9-0 at CULM UNITED, but that was two goals fewer than they achieved in their first meeting recently. Joe Bond (3), Mark Bailey (2), Julien Simier, Rob Fellingham, Adam Caddy and an OG made up the Seasiders' goal haul.

In Division Three AXMOUTH UNITED beat CHERITON FITZPAINE 3-1, but Dean Pidgeon scored his weekly goal for the cherries.

Division Four leaders AXMINSTER TOWN opened a 13-point gap on second place BAMPPTON after lashing their rivals 6-0. Aaron Daniel (3), Adam Cowling (2) and Joe Urquart were the Tigers' marksmen.

OTTERTON managed to keep their noses in front in the Division Five race as they plipped PRIORY 2-1.

However, there was an easier task for UPLOWMAN who cantered to a 7-0 win against BEER ALBION.

In Division Seven the game between LYME REGIS and leaders CENTRAL was abandoned after half an hour due to a downpour. The score was 1-1 at the time.

Just two matches were played in Division Eight, BAMPPTON winning 3-1 at home to LYMPSTONE, and SANDFORD enjoying a 4-1 return at the STOKE ARMS.

AMORY GREEN ROVERS were shock 5-0 winners at NEWTON POPPLEFORD, Nathan Richards stealing the show with a hat-trick.

Finally, AXMINSTER TOWN 3rds' slump continued with a 3-2 defeat at KENTISBEARE RESERVES. Reece Best and Adam Whitehouse scored for Ax who have won just once in nine matches.

Big home win boosts survival chances

Chard 34 Teignmouth 0
South West Division One

CHARD enhanced their chances of avoiding one of the three relegation places with this moral-boosting win against Teignmouth which was as comprehensive as the score line suggests.

Both sides deserve enormous credit for producing an entertaining display in atrocious conditions.

However, on the day Chard were the better side and were on top in the set pieces which dictated the pattern of play through out the match.

Chard lost the services of prop Dave Biss in the opening minutes but despite this loss they took an early lead with a try from skipper Ryan Helliard.

Chad Northcott, not surprisingly, missed the conversion in the strong wind and driving rain but he did increase Chard's lead with a penalty after 20 minutes.

To add to their woes Teignmouth lost one of their forwards to the bin and were soon made them pay when they were awarded a penalty try which was converted by Northcott.

Shortly before the break Chard drove over for a third try after some good approach work by the backs with Gosden being credited with the touchdown. Northcott converted to give Chard a comfortable 22-0 half time lead.

Biss had by this time come back on to the field but his original replacement Ben Mainwaring was called upon again to cover for player-coach Simon Jenkins and went on to have an excellent game.

The tiring Teignmouth pack conceded another penalty try which was once again converted by Northcott.

Number eight Mark Parsons finished things off with the fifth and final try.

Chard were now out of sight and, with conditions worsening by the minute, both captains agreed to finish the game a few minutes early.

This bonus point win makes things in the lower regions of the league very interesting, but does not ensure anything for Chard. They go into their final four games with confidence and can still secure their place in this division.

The 2nd xv travelled to play Wyvern 1st xv in Somerset Division One and took the opportunity of playing as many of their successful colts team as they could.

With 10 players under the age of 20 they put in a good performance and came back from 19 points down to score two converted tries in the second half, and were really unfortunate not to get more than a losing bonus point from the game after a barnstorming performance in the second half.

Chard 3rds travelled to play Wells in Somerset Three South but were up against it from the start when they realised that the hosts' 2nds and Colts did not have a game so they inevitably faced a stronger side than expected.

Chard gave their all and were rewarded with a terrific try from Chris Bond late in the game. Unfortunately Wells had already scored 45pts by this time!

Next Saturday Chard 1st xv are away at Weston super mare, and the 2nd xv are at home to North Petherton Both games kick off at 3pm The 3rd xv have no game.

Entertaining stuff

SEATON Town u10s played Exmouth Tornadoes and Hurricanes in two very closely fought games, which were high in quality despite the wind and rain.

First up they were edged out 2-1 against the TORNA-DOES. Leo Gribble scored the consolation following a good team move.

Seaton's midfield of Christian Pinnock and Thomas Browne combined well to carve the Tornado defence apart in the dying seconds, putting striker Gribble through on goal but his shot whistled agonisingly wide.

The next game was a thriller with the HURRICANES racing into a 2-0 lead and it looked to be a long way back for Seaton.

But just before half time Aaron Hale's speculative shot squirmed through the keeper to set up a fantastic second half. Goals flowed at each end, but it was Seaton who had their tails up; Harvey Green bagged a fine brace, with Gribble snatching an equaliser.

Hale then hit a post and Pinnock smashed one just over the bar as Seaton went for the win, but it finished all square at 4-4.

Keeper Kieran Jaycock displayed brilliant handling in difficult conditions, Thomas Browne was a cool head in midfield and Adam Clinch was a defensive rock.

Local runners enjoy conditions at Kilmington Kanter

HONITON with Judy Davey

HONITON Running Club managed a fantastic turnout at on Good Friday for Kilmington Primary School's Kilmington Kanter.

The race starts on the playing fields and runners are taken through Shute and close to Umberborne before coming back through Seaton Junction.

There is a fair amount of road but plenty of tracks, fields and styles and even a footbridge over the railway line.

There are two very challenging hills of a mile each with the rest being mainly flat or down hill.

Honiton's James Denne won the race in 41 minutes 54 seconds. Kevin Hawker was next back for Honiton winning his age category to come 7th in 44:43 while Ian Stewart came 11th in 47:24.

Tim Legg followed coming 19th in 49:20 and then came Findlay Fuller two places later in 51:36.

Richard Harris led a crowd of Honiton runners home who ended up very close together. Richard was 36th in 54:27, Richard Harvey and David Hawker took the next two places in 54:38 and 54:44 respectively. Another runner took 39th place but Honiton's Dan Strawbridge, Rod Inglis and Ceri Oak took the next three spots finishing in 56:03, 56:10 and 56:27. Steve Davey was next coming 44th in 56:55 followed by Mark Dallyn 48th in 57:38.

Judy Davey came 54th in 58:48 and Paula Ferris came 57th managing to finish just under the hour in 59:47.

Jo Davey came 60th just missing the hour mark in 1:00:56. Pippa Westall was 66th in 1:02:43, Linda Pike 70th in 1:04:31, Shane Hudd 75th in 1:05:58, Jennie Sleeman 83rd in 1:08:02, Richard Tricky Terry 88th in 1:09:27, Claire Rouse 101st in 1:12:51, Joe Daly 102nd in 1:12:52, Bernice Bastin 108th in 1:13:51 and completing Honiton's impressive line-up was Wendy Williams who came 118th in 1:25:53. There were 119 finishers.

Kilmington Kanter on Good Friday. Wayne Loveridge was off the line again at pace and finished fourth in 44.01. Next CRR over the line was James Musselwhite (1:06:17) competing in his first multi-terrain race. Helen Baxter (1:12:54) succeeded in carrying out her pre-race prediction that she must beat Simon Hall although Simon (1:13:41) can claim some victory by coming in a minute closer to her than last year. Claire Pomeroy finished next (1:18:57), followed not long after by Ollie Faulkner, who did well to finish in 1:23:11 given that he was feeling ill just before the race.

Kenworthy crowned Axe Cliff Winter League Champion

HONITON with John Pawley

WITH the 10th hole temporarily closed, 26 player turned up for last Tuesday's mens meet.

Two groups managed to fall foul of the penalty rules but there were also five birdies recorded.

The winners were the four-ball of Peter Blake, Alan Devenny, Chris Street & Peter Shepherd who collectively scored 79 points. Whilst this was happening some of the usual members formed the Seniors team who enjoyed an extremely pleasant day at Tiverton in the friendly match.

The course was in good nick, with fast greens and grassed tees – the experience of both obviously being too much for the Honiton team as Tiverton won 5-1.

Later that day competitors in the mixed played their monthly Greensomes Draw, with the winners of the 'Goblets' being Sue Kelson & Jason Gosling with 35pts. Second were Andy Sharland & Jenny Raison with 33 followed by Linda McLaughlin & Robert Hendrick with 29 on count-back.

The overall organisation of this very social group has now passed into the reliable hands of Paul and Sue Ritchie.

On a bright sunny Wednesday the Ladies played a Four-somes Stableford (alongside the qualifier for the Coronation Foursomes for those who chose to enter).

There were some close scores, particularly on the back nine. Winners on count-back were Chris Pearce & Brenda Hyde with 33 pts, followed by Lesley Oxenham & Sue Ritchie with 33, with Gill Johnson & Cathy Uttley on count-back with 31.

The Coronation Foursomes winners were Gill & Cathy who go forward to represent the Club later in the year.

The 10-hole Stableford competition was won by Catherine Hunt with 16pts on count-back, ahead of Elizabeth Ward.

The Seniors maintained their Good Friday tradition by being joined by Ladies and other club members in a 3 BBB Stableford competition, with two scores to count.

Sixty-eight players took part, the weather was glorious, and the course was in good condition so excuses for poor play were difficult to justify.

In the mixed players category Paul Ritchie, Liz Wood & John Fleetwood emerged victorious on 73pts followed by Alan Pollock, Elizabeth Ward & John Pawley.

For the men only teams Jim Wallis, Norman Runciman & David Lee triumphed with 74pts with Pete Morgan, Eric Short & Tom Stanton second on 70. Charlie Doherty, Brian Morrison & Mike Delaney were third with Ross Latchem, Fred Thomas & Howard Pritchard taking the remaining places.

Paul Ritchie will dine out on how he achieved a birdie 3 at the difficult 5th hole, despite his drive finishing in the ditch.

There were three 2s – Eric Short and David Hughes at the 2nd and Ross Latchem at the 12th.

Easter Day started in appalling weather conditions for a fun competition, the x-country – the nine holes played as never before where the tees did not match the greens in play.

This obviously suited Darren Morgan who won with an impressive 18 points. The winner in the all ladies group was Henrietta Bradshaw.

It is hoped that this competition format will return later this year – with improved weather. This was followed by an Easter egg hunt.

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motson

THE Mens section played the 10th and final round of their Winter league competitions in a Medford format on the front 9 and Stableford on the back 9.

First place was won by Paul Clode with 15 points, 2nd was Ian Burraston with 18 and, 3rd was Anthony Helliard, also with 18. Ian Steve Anning, Stuart Mackie, Paul Curtin and Ian Burraston all carded 2s.

The Overall winner of the Winter League competition was Alan Kenworthy with Paul Curtin 2nd and Ain Burraston 3rd.

The Ladies section played their annual Captain v Secretary match which comprised of six teams.

The match was won by the Captain's team of Margaret Kenchington, Anne Jarvis & Jill Wellington. The runners up Secretary's team members were Stella Thompson. Barbara Cummings & Janet Dack.

The Ladies Captain Margaret Kenchington later presented the section Secretary Diana Rogers with, a signed card and a Springtime plant to mark the occasion of Diana's 50 years of membership of the Club.

CRICKET ST THOMAS with Bert Robinson

THE Seniors section combined with the Ladies section on Monday and played a mixed Bowmaker tournament with one lady and two seniors in each team of three.

The sunshine was very welcome, and with the course in fine condition, some excellent scores were returned.

However, the quick greens caught out some of the fifteen teams that entered the competition.

Jan Warner-Booth led her team well, and were leaders in the clubhouse with an impressive 81 points. This was beaten by four points by Kim Clarke's trio and seemed likely to be the winning score until the final grouping led by Barbara Shaw returned a score of 86 points to claim first prize.

Results: 1st Barbara Shaw; Chris Denman & Frank Martin 86 points, 2nd Kim Clarke; Roger Stone & Nobby Hodder 85, 3rd Jan Warner-Booth; Keith Branchflower & Mike Burt 81.

Meanwhile, 45 seniors travelled to the North Somerset coast on Wednesday to play the first round of the Seniors Challenge Cup at the Minehead Golf Club.

Although conditions were good, the freezing cold wind affected some of the golfers who returned indifferent scores.

This, however, did not affect the low handicappers, most of whom returned good scores.

At the end, only three points separated the first three places, with Danny Dowell claiming the honours of a first round win by returning a score of 38 points, two better than his closest rival Rod Stevens, and three better than Bob Hollingsworth who finished in third place.

Drama right to the end!

THE race for second place provided a dramatic finish to the season. Hi Q had already clinched the top spot and, playing Flamingos in their final game needed a win to end with their 100 per cent record intact.

Flamingos also needed a win to make sure of second place, anything less would leave their fate in the hands of Uplowman.

With Laura French playing well, Hi Q led 18-7 at half way. By the end of the third quarter Flamingos were still behind 13-25 and doing just enough for a point. In the final period Trish Warwick pulled out all the stops for Flamingos as they ended 21-29 down and waited eagerly to see how Uplowman would do against Otters.

Uplowman needed a win to move above

Flamingos into second place as Flamingos had a superior goal difference.

With Liz Heywood playing well the evening started promisingly for Uplowman as they edged 20-15 ahead by half way.

Going into the final quarter they had increased their lead to 29-23 and were on their way to the runner up spot.

But Vicky Carroll and Otters had other ideas and fought their way back to force a 37-37 draw. This Flamingos clinching second place on goal difference.

The other games of the night saw Sidmouth Toucan Chicks finish their first season in division one with a 38-20 win over relegated JD Tyres. Louise Hastie was the pick of the Chicks whilst Lara Nicholson was the JD player of the game.

The final game saw Signs South West beat Tip Top Trees 44-31. Hannah Gilbert and Debbie Wheeler were top players.
